

Beer Menu

Bier Beer Biere

Draught Beer

Stella Artois	5%	Belgium's best selling beer. Clear, golden pilsner. Draught fresh
Hoegaarden	5%	Exceptional, refreshing wheat beer. Coriander and curacao hints This beer dates back to Leffe Abbey in 1152. Smooth and aromatic
Leffe Blonde	6.6%
Leffe Brune	6.6%	Perfect balance of dark roasted malt, bitterness and coffee
Kriek Draught	5.1%	Kriek, the Flemish word for cherry. Both sweet and refreshing

Trappist Ales

Once a silent order, Belgian Trappist monks have hand crafted a unique variety of beers since the middle ages. These full bodied beers are said to have provided added substance to the monks during lent.

Chimay Bleu	9%	Very dark complex and port like. Perfect w Roquefort cheese
Chimay Rouge	7%	Rouge in colour, a strong flavour, not too bitter
Orval	6.2%	Amber, dry-hopped aroma. Fresh acidity of finish, a classic Dark, rich and velvet-like. Drink with Belgian chocolate pudding
Rocheport	11.3%
Westmalle Triple	9%	Golden orange, w Saaz hops nose. Power and drinkability. Golden colour, slightly hazy, a fine head, an aroma of fresh hops and yeast
Chimay Blanche	8%
La Chouffe	8%	Brewed from spring water and crushed barley malt
Mc Chouffe	9%	Strong, spicy and only slightly hoppy A soft fruity character. Corked like wine so it may be laid down
Chimay Grande Reserve	9%

Belgian Ales/Strong Ales

Belgium produces over 850 beers. Most of these beers have been made for centuries, and Belgium, more than any other country, produces beer that is very strong in alcohol. These beers range in size, shape, colour and taste, but most are top fermenting ales and challenge us with rich body & complexity

Bush Amber	12%	The strongest beer in Belgium. Cashew palate, oily orange finish
De koninck	5.0%	The everyday Antwerp ale. Reddish, w cinnamon. smooth dry finish
Duvel	8.5%	Fragrant, fizzy, orange brandy. Smooth finish. A true original Brewery dates back 1369. Toffee, orange palate. Rich spice finish
Gouden Carolus	8.5%	Based on the 'devilish' original. Strong, refreshing golden-ale
Judas	8.5%	Rich, fizzy palate. Perfect with grilled mussels, cheese croquette
Lucifer	8%	Brewed for seven generations, this beer is nougat-like and fruity
Kwak	9%	Made from Saaz & Styrian hops. A fruity aroma and a dry finish
Delirium Tremens	9%	Full bodied beer with a balance between bitter and sweet
La Guillotine	9%	White beer with a more profound bitterness and an exotic aroma
Blanche Des Neiges	5%

Abbey/Abbaye Bier

This family of Belgian beers were once produced by Benedictine and Norbertine abbeys. Most abbeys have licenced commercial brewers to produce these beers using their century old recipe.

Leffe Radium	8.2%	Powerful and dense. Bitter caramel with spicy pepper finish
Villers Triple	8.4%	Triple ferment, freshness lifted by a solid base
Leffe Vielle Cuvee	8.1%	The 'cru' offers an aromatic, smooth palate & creamy finish

Fruit Beers

These Sparkling, champagne-like beers are unique to the town of Lembeek, outside Brussels. They contain unmalted wheat fermented with wild yeasts. These fruit beers make a wonderful aperitif or drink with crisp, summer salads.

A crisp fruity taste for those with a sweet tooth

Apple	3.6%
Strawberry	3.6%
Raspberry	3.6%
Chocolate	3.6%
Ninkeberry	3.6%
Passionfruit	3.6%

